

The Glebe in it's editorial of 22nd August 2001, said of the Cooks River to Iron Cove Greenway dream - “as a long term community project let's hope it can become a reality...any opportunity to create more green space is to be seized”

Now is your chance to get involved and help it become a reality! Join us for the inaugural meeting and launch of the new greenway community group...

“Friends” of the GreenWay which will support the GreenWay vision of an environmental corridor linking the Cooks River and Iron Cove, help secure valuable open space for the Inner West, and be a watchdog to ensure that the soon to be disused goods rail corridor is not sold off.

The launch will be at Cadigal Reserve Summer Hill (off Grosvenor Cres and adjacent to Hawthorne Canal) at

11am on Saturday 6th October 2007

Till 12noon, refreshments provided. For more details, and RSVP contact Bruce Ashley on 9560 9281 or email admin@greenway.org.au. Will be held rain, hail or shine (but excepting cyclone or lightning when we will adjourn to a local cafe or similar). For a location map and more on the greenway vision see the greenway web site at www.greenway.org.au looking forward to seeing you there!
